VOL. XII. RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1881. NO. 69.

Cast Your Bread Upon the Waters.

N. Y. Sun.

A widow living in Paris, who had five children of her own to maintain, and possessed but meagre resources for the struggle of life, took pity upon a destitute orphan boy, whom she received under her roof. He learned a trade, won the esteem of his employer, followed the latter to America, and prospered there. He had frequently sent money to his foster mother but she had fallen into difficulties out of which no way seemed open to her. When, however, she was just on the point of succumbing to her troubles, a carriage turned the corner of the dismal alley where she lived, a gentleman and lady allighted, and the former, after climbing the narrow stairs leading to the widow's garret, threw himself into her arms with the pleasant intelligence that he had returned a wealthy man, and that with his wife's consent, he had come to take his foster mother to live with them.

M. Alexander Dumas is now printing his "Theatre" at Dole, in Jura, and the book is apparently destined to become the joy and despair of bibliophiles. The New York Sun says: Only ninety copies of the six volumes are to be printed, and not one of these will be sold. By far the greater part will be given to the actors and actresses who have "created" M. Dumas' plays, beginning with those still surviving of the company who in 1852 acted the "Dame aux Camelias." The book is beautifully printed, and is filled with notes and details of great interest to all who care about the history of the French stage in the last thirty years.

The N. Y. Sun says that the Rev. Dr. Parnell, Secretary to the Episcopal diocese of Ontario, says he is unable to account for the shortage of $12,000 in his accounts, as he has not knowingly misappropriated the money. He rather thinks his bookkeeping is faulty, and hence the deficit. He is willing to turn over all his insurance policy to the church, so that the loss may be made good at his death; but he cannot promise an earlier reparation, as he owns no property. The case is peculiar, and opinion seems to be divided on the question whether the clergyman is a knave, or, in a financial sense, a fool.

While the Treasurer of the Foundling Hospital of Moscow was on his way to the Commercial Bank with 300,000 roubles he was robbed of the whole sum. His story is that he lost consciousness on the way, and when he recovered his senses the money was gone. As this explanation was not deemed altogether satisfactory by the authorities the man was arrested.

A boat destined to be propelled solely by electricity, has just been completed in France. The owner, Mr. Tellier, intends to launch it at Boulogne, and to cross in it at Folkestone, in company with a friend. The boat is about eighteen feet long, and about four and one-half feet wide.

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito urinary organs.

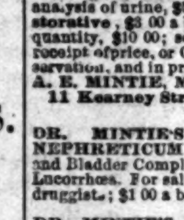

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation Free. Thorough examination and advice $5.

WHAT OUR GOVERNMENT WILL DO, FOR THE JEANNETTE CREW.

The Secretary of State and Secretary of the Navy had a conference this afternoon as to the best method to be pursued in reference to the wrecked steamer Jeanette, and agreed that the only thing to be done at present was to telegraph the United States Minister at St. Petersburg to request the Russian Government to furnish all the assistance in their power, pecuniary and otherwise, towards bringing the survivors to a place of communication, so that they might be enabled to reach home.

The question of sending the United States steamer Rodgers, now in winter quarters at St. Lawrence Bay, in search of the missing crew of the steamer Jeannette, was discussed at the Navy Department to-day and the conclusion reached that such an expedition would be impracticable until spring.

Bixine has accepted the invitation to pronounce the eulogy upon President Garfield in the forthcoming memorial service.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 21.

Members of the Grand Jury have officially visited the Metropolitan Temple and some of the theatres for the purpose of determining whether the means of exit were adequate in case of fire.

The State Teachers Association of California will hold its 15th annual meeting in this city, commencing December 12th.

About a year ago the Board of Health adopted a resolution condemning Chinatown and calling on the Board of Supervisors to increase the accommodations so that the provisions of the cubic air ordinance could be enforced. The Board of Supervisors for some reason, failed to give it attention. Last night the Board of Health met and again adopted the resolution and called the attention of the new Board to the necessity of increasing at once the present accommodations. The Board also called the consideration of the Supervisors to the fact that during the present year not less than 20,000 Chinamen had arrived in the city, and that they were all quartered in Chinatown, and that its limits had not been enlarged.

The quarantine officers stated that a great number of Chinese who arrived on the last steamer were reported as having been vaccinated prior to leaving China, but that it had since been ascertained by investigation that there was no virus at Yokohama or Hong Kong, and that the Celestials had been inoculated with mucilage, instead of vaccine matter. The Board of Health authorized the quarantine office to rigidly enforce the ordinance requiring vaccination.

The Tribune says there was a pleasant family group at the house of Wm. C. Walton, a brother of Mrs. Captain DeLong last evening. There was present: Captain Walton and wife, the parents of Mrs. DeLong, and William Walton and wife. Mrs. DeLong left the City on Saturday to take up her residence with her sister at Burlington, Iowa. She has passed the time since her husband's departure alternately with this sister and with her brother in this city. Captain Walton telegraphed her at once the news of her husband's arrival at the mouth of the Lena River.

CRUSHED BY ICE.

Two Boat Loads From the Missing Jeannette Discovered—They Land at the Mouth of the Lena River in Great Distress.

NEW YORK, December 20.

The New York Herald has received particulars of the rescue of two boats filled with men, containing three of the officers of the expedition and 23 of the crew, of the Artic steamer Jeannette. The other boat, number 2, has not been heard from and is supposed to have been lost. Following is a copy of the dispatch:

WASHINGTON, December 20.—The following telegram has just been received from Hoffman, Charge d'Affairs of the United States at St. Petersburg: The Jeannette was crushed in the ice on June 11, in lattitude 77 north, longitude 157 east. The crew escaped in three boats, which were separated by the wind and fog. No. 3 boat, with eleven men, under the charge of Engineer Melville, reached the mouth of the Lena river on September 19. Boat No. 1, having on board Captain DeLong, Dr. Ambler and twelve men, reached the Lena river in a pitiable condition. Prompt assistance was rendered. Boat No. 2 has not been heard from.

T. F. FRELINGHUYSEN,
Secretary of State.

ENGLISH PRESS COMMENT.

LONDON, December 21.

The Times understands that a British Foreign Officer has telegraphed to St. Petersburg for confirmation of news, and further details regarding the Jeannette. The News in a leading article says:

"If any spur were needed to hasten the expedition to help Leigh Smith, it is provided in the news about the Jeanuette that sympathy with such ventures is wide spread and deep. It has been proved by the heartfelt relief, experienced at the news. The major part of the crew of the Jeannette are alive."

The Post says: "In every quarter of the globe news that the brave sailors have reached a port of refuge will be received with heartfelt satisfaction."

WHAT GENERAL KENNEAL SAYS.

WASHINGTON, December 21.

The news received yesterday was brought from the mouth of the Lena river by a special messenger up the river to Yakausk on dog sledges; thence by a Cossack courier, traveling day and night with a relay of horses to Irkousk, the capital of Eastern Siberia, and thence by telegraph to St. Petersburg. The news has been fully two months, and perhaps more, getting from the mouth of the Lena to Irkousk, and it is more than possible that the next information we get will be that of the arrival of the shipwrecked crew at Yakoustk. The Governor of the sea coast province at Yakoustk is a man of cultivation and enlightenment, and a member of the Siberian branch of the Imperial Geographical Society.

The crew may have found inhabited stations nearer than the mouth of the Lena, or been picked up by a Russian or native fishing boat and carried elsewhere.

They will have no serious difficulty in getting home from the mouth of the Lena. The journey up the river from the Arctic sea coast to Yakoutsk will be a hard one, on account of the great severity of the climate in that part of Siberia, but it ought not to occupy more than a month, or a month and a half, and is not attended with any danger to men of fair powers of endurance. It is, in some respects, an easier journey than from Nizhni Colyma to Yakcutsk, which is performed by scores of Russian traders every winter.

WHAT COMMANDER CHEYM SAYS.

NEW YORK, December 21.

"I have never had any fear for the safety of the Jeannette," said Commander Cheym last night to a reporter. "She was of unusual strength, being much stronger than many vessels used for Arctic expeditions. She had on board provisions for three years, and there was no danger from that source. The fact that no despatches were left by her at Wrangle Land proved nothing, except that she was kept off the coast by ice. Other vessels have run out for years and returned in safety. Victoria, for instance, commanded by John Ross, and the Investigator, commended by Sir Robert McClure. My opinion has been all along that the Jeannette was some where north of Grinnells Land. I thought that after leaving Behring Strait she had possibly been caught in the ice, and had been carried east by circumlittoral current, which goes north of Sweden, then north of Asia, then past America and then finally off.

How she was crushed, of course, we can only surmise. The men may have gone a considerable distance in their boats. I think that the third boat will yet be heard from. You see traveling in the Arctic regions is much safer than people suppose it is. Whatever happens you have always ice under you. The other open sea is a myth."

WASHINGTON, December 21.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says: At Cape Barbay, about 90 miles north of Cape Bikoff, a large boat with 11 survivors from the shipwrecked Jeannette were discovered. They had suffered greatly. The adjunct of the Chief of the district was at once charged to proceed with doctors and medicines to succor the survivors at Yakoutsk, and to search for the rest of the shipwrecked crew. Engr. Melville has sent telegrams to the effect that the poor fellows have lost everything. Engr-Melville says that the Jeannette was caught and crushed by ice on the 23d of June, in latitude 77 north, 157 east longitude. The survivors of the Jeannette left in 3 boats, fifty miles from the mouth of the Lena. They lost sight of each other during a gale and dense fog, and boat number 3, under command of Melville, reached the eastern mouth of the Lena on the 29th of September, and was stopped by icebergs near the hamlet of Idomlaciros Idalatro, on the 29th of Oct. There also arrived at Baloneuga, boat No. 1 with the sailors Wenderman and Noras. They brought information of Lieutenant De Long, Dr. Ambler and Roser. Other survivors had landed at the northern mouth of Lena, where they are at present in a most distressing state, many having their limbs frozen. An expedition was immediately sent from Bolonenga to make diligent search for the unfortunates, who are in danger of death.

The Standard says: Though the Jeannette has suffered destruction, Americans have added additional glory to that they have already won in frozen zones. It concludes that it is more than possible that DeLong may be the herald of a new race of those who feareth not the spirit which dwelleth in a land of ice and snow.

Chairmanship of House Committees.

WASHINGTON, December 21.

The following is said to be the assignment of Chairmanships on House Committees determined upon by the Republicans: Pacheco (Cal.) Private Land Claims; Page (Cal.) Commerce; Hiscock (N. Y.) Appropriations; Kelly (Penn.) Ways and Means; Young (Ohio) Claims; Neal (Ohio) District of Columbia; Townsend (Ohio) Railroads and Canals; Reed (Maine) Judiciary.

Shot Dead.

NEWARK, N. J., December 21.

James Graves, a crank, aged 60 years, shot dead this evening in the public street Eddie Loder, aged 13. When Graves was taken to the Station House he said he guessed the boy would not trouble him again, and offered to plead guilty to murder in the second degree. Three years ago Graves was arrested for threatening the life of Loden's father.

New Railroad Company.

BOSTON, December 21.

The Herald says: New York and Boston capitalists have nearly completed arrangements for a new road between Boston and New York, a distance of 189 miles, to cost fifty millions, for which funds are provided. The name of the company is, "New York and Boston Inland R. R. Co." The names of the incorporators secret.

Another New Jersey Swindler in Prison.

NEWARK, N. J., December 21.

Another financial fraud has just been developed. Fredrick A. Palmer, Auditor of City Accounts, surrendered himself and was imprisoned on his own confession that he has embezzled about $125,000 of city funds in the past three years and lost it in Wall street speculations. He asserts that no one is implicated with him.

An Ex-Confederate Officer Killed.

CHARLESTOWN, W. Va., December 21.

Captain Wm. Vandegraft, a noted ex-Confederate officer, was shot and killed last night by Henry Legge during a quarrel. Legge is in jail.

Drowned.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., December 22.

Two boys named William and Fredrick Korn, of Wattertown, Wis., broke through the ice while skating and were both drowned.

Guiteau's Trial.

WASHINGTON, December 21.

The Court met again this morning, and the first witness called was Dr. Hamilton, of New York. Scoville desired to have other experts excluded during the taking of his testimony; but the Court ruled against him. During the argument Davidge was interrupted by Guiteau, who said:

"I will cut this short, Judge, by saying that I am willing to have them all here. I want them to learn all they can, I have so much confidence in their honor and integrity that—"

Davidge interrupting—That's just what I am coming to.

Guiteau—You are on the right track Judge. I'll take you on my side. You are engaged for my side of the case.

Hamilton was questioned at great length relative to the operations of minds, the significance of dreams and the unconciousness of expressions, as indication of mental processes. The counsel for the prosecution protested against the apparantly objective direction of the inquiries.

Scoville (smiling)—Well, gentlemen, I told you I did not know much about this subject.

Guiteau—Then you had better get off the case if you don't know anything about it. I think that Reed and I can do better than you, judging from the way you are laboring.

Hamilton, continuing, said:

People adjudged medically insane were not capable of judging between right and wrong. Guiteau, quickly looking up from writing:

"What bearing has that, when a person is controlled by irresistable impulse? That's all there is in this case." The witness replied: "There are a great many insane, medically, who appreciate the difference between right and wrong, in nearly all asylums." Looking over notes which Scoville held in his hand, he continued: "You have got a lot of stuff there. It is not in your handwriting. I guess it must have been contributed by some crank."

Guiteau appeared dissatisfied with the result of the examination, and finally said to Scoville: "Oh, tear this stuff up, Scoville. Send this man down and call Clark Mills. He is a good deal better man for you than this one. He took a cast of my head the other day, thinking some people would be interested to see it. He took a bust of Andrew Jackson, and he thinks it greater than Jackson's was. He found one side of my head badly deficient, though."

One Experience From Many.

"I had been sick and miserable so long, and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense—no one seemed to know what ailed me—that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me they said, 'Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy.'"—THE METHEN.

LINKED LOVERS.

A HANDSOME COUPLE MARRIED BY BROTHER JENVEY IN MODERN ENGLISH STYLE.

John F. Alexander and Kate C. Benham Jump the Broomstick and Take the Train for San Francisco—The Dresses, the Parties, the Presents and the Ceremony.

The fashion editor and wedding sharp of the GAZETTE is off duty and the paper is left almost helpless on the present occasion. Mr. Alexander was particularly requested to write up the festivities of last evening, but he declined with an energy that made him so hoarse he could hardly speak all the evening. Mr. Alexander is one of the best known men of his age on the coast, and the interest manifested in the event has been very marked. In his career as student and editor he has been closely associated with many of the leading minds on the coast, and his friends are scattered over every county in three States.

THE HIGH CONTRACTING PARTIES.

John Fry Alexander is a native of Iowa, and was born in 1854. He was descended from strong Scottish ancestors on both his father and mother's side. When a year old his father died, and in 1859 his mother moved to Nevada and settled on the Comstock. Little Johnny indulged his youthful genius in the peculiarities of Comstock life until 1869, when his mother moved down to the Truckee and took possession of a fine ranch about two miles below Reno. She was very successful in business and was abundantly able to provide her children with the means of acquiring a good education. John left home in 1871 and entered the University of California. His ready wit, studious habits and amiable disposition made him a great favorite with his classmates, and Reno people who travel much are often asked if he has answered the brilliant promises of his youth. He is said to have been one of the best

AFTER DINNER SPEAKERS

That was ever in the University of the Pacific. He graduated with high honors in 1875, and returned to the land of sagebrush. In his absence the town of Reno had grown into respectable proportions, and he thought he saw a field for an evening paper, such as he felt capable of making, and in 1876 he started the RENO EVENING GAZETTE, and the next year started the RENO WEEKLY GAZETTE. The style and make-up of the paper will be witnesses of the judgment, taste and rare good sense of its founder as long as it lives. Good judges, like Arthur McEwen and others, who might be called experts, say that it was simply remarkable to see a young man, less than 22 years of age, fresh from college and absolutely without experience lay such a good foundation for a great newspaper as he did for the GAZETTE. There were small mistakes, of course, but, as a whole, the work was excellent, and in this opinion the general public has concurred in the most substantial way, that of a generous support. In 1878 Mr. Alexander sold the paper to its present owner, and turned his attention to the study of law. For his new profession he showed a special fitness, requiring nothing but industry to make him eminent. He prosecuted his studies successfully, and was admitted to the bar by the unanimous vote of the Supreme Court of this State. Since last May he has been again connected with the GAZETTE. The happy young lady is Kate Constantine Benham, a native of Constantine, Michigan, who has lived in Reno for 15 years. She is a daughter of sunny France on her mother's side, and Old England on her father's.

THE YOUNG COUPLE,

However, have nothing of their foreign ancestry about them. Both are thoroughly American, and might stand for representatives of the higher types of Western man and womanhood. He, tall, well-built, and strongly built; she slender, but full of endurance, delicate, but resolute. All day yesterday the door-bell was kept ringing by messengers delivering handsome and valuable presents, and messages of congratulation from all parts of the country, as well as from friends in Reno and vicinity. Between pressing thoughts of the great change in her quiet life, of the responsibilities so soon to be taken up, and the excitement of unpacking presents and deciding upon dresses, ornaments, etc., added to the work of preparing for a trip to San Francisco, the day must have been a very hard one for the lady. A clandestine peep into the treasure box, showed some very beautiful and costly gifts. D. W. Willard, of Sacramento, sent up a box of elegant flowers. One bouquet had as a center-piece, an immense camelia of exquisite odor. W. N. Knox and lady sent a handsome pickle jar, Wales L. Knox a silver sugar bowl, R. P. M. Kelly, natural flowers. Barney McClure and wife were represented by a silver butter knife and dish, with automatic lids and an amature ice-chest underneath. Mrs. Drummund, of Dutch Flat, by a plaque painted by herself; Allen C. Bragg and wife, a pair of silver and glass vases; Mrs. Abeel, of Dutch Flat, pickle-knife; R. L. Fulton and wife, a pair of Opera glasses; Mrs. W. Carver, a silver spoon vase. A local poets card read:

To the darling goose, to the darling gander;
Kate C. Benham and John Alexander.

A jewel casket was sent from the GAZETTE composing room. Some lovely bureau mats were from Mrs. D. A. Bender, Carson, and a preserve stand, silver and glass, from Mrs. A. L. Bender; a pair of vases from Mrs. R. P. M. Kelly; sugar spoon from Miss Mary Toombs; a case of perfumery from Miss Mollie Grippen, and gloves from Miss Quaiffe. The doors of Trinity Church were thrown open early, and the large room was completely filled before the hour appointed for,

THE CEREMONY,

Which was conducted in the modern English style. Promptly at 7:30 the chancel door opened, and the Rev. W. R. Jenvey stepped to the rail, accompanied by the bridegroom, who advanced to the edge of the platform to meet the bridal party, consisting of Miss Benham, leaning on the arm of her bother Milton, and Miss May Benham, escorted by E. L. Bridges, who came down the main aisle, while Miss Quaiffe played the wedding march. The solemn words were quickly said, and one of the most important events of two lifetimes was accomplished. The bride wore a beautiful, cream-colored dress of serge and satin made en train. In her hair, and at her throat, she wore natural camelias, with the traditional orange flowers. The costume was very tasteful and accorded well with the dark-brown hair and brilliant complexion of the beautiful girl. She looked the sweet and tender woman that she is. The bridesmaid wore white, with natural flowers, and could only have been more interesting by being a bride herself. After receiving the congratulations of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander took the overland train for San Francisco.

It Got Here.

A letter addressed:

"To the Station Master Reno
Washoe county Navada pacifick Railway station that John Gillespie was at U S America."

was opened by Mr. Higgins this morning. Inside was found a sixpence and this letter:

KILWENNEY Nove 28th 1881

DEAR SIR Havyng got no word from my Husband this to months past I am anxions to know if he has left your employ or if there is anything wrong with him if you would be so kind as write me and let me know I will be greatly obliged to you I will be anxious till I hear about John my address is Ann Gillespie Byers Kilweenney Scotland care of James Campbell."

Mr. Gillespie is not known here. Who is he?

Buy Something for the Babies.

For a small outlay of money you can make the little ones happy, and why not do so. At Nasby's Bazaar can be found an elegant stock to select from, and his prices are very low. If you cannot find what you want at Nasby's go to E. A. Allen's, on Commercial Row. A good book is a nice present for the ladies, and S. M. Jamison & Son has an elegant stock in that line. Just drop in and see for yourself. C. J. Brookins has enough in his store to make every child in the town remember the Christmas of '81, with pleasant thoughts all their lives. Don't forget to call in.

Artistic Beauty.

In selecting Christmas presents all who have an eye to artistic beauty and the latest styles will be most favorably impressed with the display in the show window of Queen's Drug Store. Stepping inside they will find that he has an immense assortment of goods from which the choicest and most appropriate gifts can be selected, at any and all prices. They will be surprised to learn at what low figures articles of rare beauty and intrinsic merit can be obtained. This explains the large business done by R. E. Queen, his large purchases and rapid sales. *

Grand Jury.

The following gentlemen have been drawn as Grand Jurors, and summoned to meet January 2d, 1882: Wm. Merrill, W. E. Lemmons, F. C. Dickinson, James Felnagel, G. W. Sawyer, O. C. Ross, M. Gulling, E. Owen, L. D. Smith, B. G. Clow, G. W. Huffaker, W. F. Berry, A. White, Thomas Barnett, James Sullivan, N. Hammond, A. Lindly, H. L. Fish, J. S. Shoemaker, L. J. Flint, J. L. McFarlin, Geo. Alt, G. W. Andrews and J. C. Hagerman.

Still the Good Work Goes On.

The Catholic people feel under obligations to Condon & McIntosh for lumber contributed to lay a sidewalk from the end of Lake street to the Catholic Church. The new sidewalk adds much to the appearance of the street and makes it convenient for the public.

Dr. Green's Oxygenated Bitters

Is the best remedy for Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Malaria, Indigestion, and diseases of the Blood, Kidneys, Liver, skin, etc.

DURNO'S CATARRH SNUFF cures all affections of the mucous membrane, of the head and throat.

DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS are the best Cathartic Regulators.

Feeble Ladies.

Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet, that constant drain that is taking from your system all its elasticity, driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful; can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special cause of periodical pain is permanently removed. Will you heed this?

To the Traveling Public.

People who ride on railroad trains need good watches. W. B. Miller, of Sacramento, keeps them, and invites all who visit that city to call at his store, No. 628 J street, and examine his stock. He makes a specialty of standard time keepers for conductors, engineers and other railroad men, and guarantees his goods and prices to be bargains. He has a large and fine stock of jewelry, diamonds, silver and plated ware, clocks, etc. n1tf

Special Notice.

Hale's California stores have made a purchase of 22,000 yards dress and trimming plaids—the entire stock held by a wholesale house. These goods are in every conceivable shade and pattern, and purchased at a great bargain, and will be sold regardless of their real value, at the following prices: 12½c, 15c, 20c and 25c per yard. Send for sample.

Telephone vs. Angels.

Some time since an invalid member of a Scotch church had the service conveyed to him by means of a telephone line from the pulpit to his bedside. In the West Free Church, Dundee, which has just been renovated, a telephone line has been established from the pulpit to the bedside of a bedridden member of the congregation.

A Philadelphia burglar murdered the man who confronted him at work, and was himself fired upon; but he escaped, and for a time the police were unable to get any clue to his identity. At length a detective, rummaging in the residence of a professional thief, found a boot without a mate. Continuing the search, he came upon a single slipper for the opposite foot. He at once guessed that the owner was the guilty burglar, and that, being wounded in one foot, he had discarded a boot. This led to the arrest of the murderer.

GENTLEMEN: Your remedy, the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure has been used by both my wife and myself. She used it "on general principles," as a system and liver regulator; I took the medicine for a long-standing liver trouble, which has been the source of much inconvenience, and which failed to yield to the doctor's remedies, or any other, until I used your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. We both unite in pronouncing it to be the best medicine ever used, and in recommending it to others as a safe remedy.

THE SUN.

1883. NEW YORK. 1882.

THE SUN for 1882 will make its fifteenth annual revolution under the present management, shining, as always, for all, big and little, mean and gracious, contented and unhappy, Republican and Democratic, depraved and virtuous, intelligent and obtuse. THE SUN's light is for mankind and womankind of every sort; but its genial warmth is for the good, while it pours hot discomfort on the blistering backs of the persistently wicked.

THE SUN of 1868 was a newspaper of a new kind. It discarded many of the forms, and a multitude of the superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism. It undertook to report in a fresh, succinct, unconventional way, all the news of the world, omitting no event of human interest, and commenting upon affairs with the fearlessness of absolute independence. The success of this experiment was the success of THE SUN. It effected a permanent change in the style of American newspapers. Every important newspaper established in this country in the dozen years past has been modelled after THE SUN. Every important journal already existing has been modified and bettered by the force of THE SUN's example.

THE SUN of 1882 will be the same outspoken, truth-telling and interesting newspaper.

By a liberal use of the means which an abundant prosperity affords, we shall make it better than ever before.

We shall print all the news, putting it into readable shape, and measuring its importance, not by the traditional yardstick, but by its real interest to the people. Distance from Printing House Square is not the first consideration with THE SUN. Whenever anything happens worth reporting we get the particulars, whether it happens in Brooklyn or Bokhara.

In politics we have decided opinions; and are accustomed to express them in language that can be understood. We say what we think about men and events. That habit is the only secret of THE SUN's political course.

THE WEEKLY SUN gathers into eight pages the best matter of the seven daily issues. An Agricultural Department of unequaled merit, full market reports, and a liberal proportion of literary, scientific and domestic intelligence complete the WEEKLY SUN, and make it the best newspaper for the farmer's household that was ever printed.

Who does not know and read and like THE SUNDAY SUN, each number of which is a Golconda of interesting literature, with the best poetry of the day, prose every line worth reading, news, humor—matter enough to fill a good-sized book, and infinitely more varied and entertaining than any book, big or little?

If our idea of what a newspaper should be pleases you, send for THE SUN.

Our terms are as follows:

For the daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty eight columns, the price by mail, post-paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6 50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents per month, or $7 70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1 20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

BELL TONGUE SYRUP,

AN ACCIDENTAL DISCOVERY OF great value.

An Inestimable Benefit to Mankind.

UNCLE BEN JO'S

GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PANACEA.

UNCLE BEN JO was born in Boston in 1800. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderful cures with roots and herbs. In 1844 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite familiar with it, and had always supposed it to be a poisonous herb, which they used for the sole purpose of keeping snakes away from their tents or houses. This they did by laying it in a circle about the same at a proper distance off. This herb, Uncle Jo, as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when green and fresh it threw off a very distasteful and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part lops over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its curved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, burly-looking ball, which stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle Jo named it the Bell Tongue Plant. In South America this herb is only found in the extreme interior of the country, and the natives there call it "Zarr Nero." It is a wonderful cure of kidney and liver diseases, also, dyspepsia, neuralgia and rheumatism. We have a whole library full of testimonials. Sold by OSBURN & SHOEMAKER,

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE,

(SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY,)

FOR THE COMING YEAR.

With the November number began the new series under the title of THE CENTURY MAGAZINE, which will be, in fact, a new, enlarged and improved SCRIBNER. The page is somewhat longer and wider, admitting pictures of a larger size, and increasing the reading matter about FOURTEEN ADDITIONAL PAGES.

The following is a summary of the leading features of the new series for the year:

A New Novel by Mrs. Burnett (author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's" etc.) entitled "Through One Administration," a story of Washington life.

Studies of the Louisiana Creoles by Geo. W. Cable, author of "The Grandissimes," a series of illustrated papers on the traditions and romance of Creole life in Louisiana.

A Novel by W. D. Howells (author of "A Chance Acquaintance," etc.), dealing with characteristics of American life.

Ancient and Modern Sculpture, "A HISTORY OF MODERN SCULPTURE," by Mrs. Lucy M. Mitchell, to contain the finest series of engravings yet published of the masterpieces of sculpture. There will also be papers on "LIVING ENGLISH SCULPTORS," and on the "YOUNGER SCULPTORS OF AMERICA," fully illustrated.

The Opera in New York, by Richard Grant White. A popular and valuable series, to be illustrated with wonderful completeness and beauty.

Architecture and Decoration in America, will be treated in a way to interest both householder and housewife; with many practical as well as beautiful illustrations from recent designs.

Representative Men and Women of the 19th Century. Biographical sketches, accompanied by portraits, of George Eliot, Robert Browning, Rev. Frederick W. Robertson (by the late Dean Stanley), Matthew Arnold, Christiana Rossetti, and Cardinal Newman, and of the younger American authors. Wm. D. Howells, Henry James, Jr., and George W. Cable.

Scenes of Thackeray's Hawthorne's and George Eliot's Novels, succeeding the illustrated series on the scenes of Dickens' novels.

The Reform of the Civil Service. Arrangements have been made for a series of able papers on this pressing political question.

Poets and Poetry in America. There will be studies of Longfellow, Whittier, Emerson, Lowell and others, by E. C. Stedman.

Stories, Sketches and Essays may be expected from Charles Dudley Warner, W. D. Howells, "Mark Twain," Edward Eggleston, Henry James, Jr., John Muir, Miss Gordon Cumming, "H. H." Geo. W. Cable, Joel Chandler Harris, A. C. Redwood, F. D. Millet, Noah Brooks, Frank R. Stockton, Constance F. Woolson, H. H. Boyesen, Albert Stickney, Washington Gladden, John Burroughs, Parke Godwin, Tomaso Slavini, Henry King, Ernest Ingersoll, E. L. Godkin, E. S. Washburne, and many others.

One or two papers on the adventures of the Tile Club, and an original Life of Bewick, the engraver, by Austin Dobson, are among other features to be later announced.

The Editorial Departments throughout will be unusually complete, and the "World's Work" will be considerably enlarged.

The price of THE CENTURY MAGAZINE will remain at $4 per year (35 cents a number). The portrait, (size 21x27) of the late Dr. Holland, issued just before his death, photographed from a life-sized drawing by Wyatt Eaton, will possess a new interest to readers of this magazine. It is offered at $5 retail, or together with THE CENTURY MAGAZINE for $6 50. Subscriptions are taken by the publishers, and by book-sellers and news-dealers everywhere.

THE RENO GAZETTE

For 1882 will be a better paper than it has ever been before. It now gets all the latest press dispatches, and is thus placed many hours ahead of any other paper. It has always been the policy of the proprietor to make the GAZETTE a first-class local paper, with full accounts of everything that occurs in Reno, or Washoe county, or the State of Nevada. The resources of the country are carefully studied and written up by able correspondents, and the GAZETTE has done as much as all the other papers combined in this respect.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE

Contains all the reading matter of the Daily, without its advertisements. It is an eight-page paper, with good, plain letters and clean, white paper. It has increased in an extraordinary manner in the last six months, and is now growing rapidly. Its interesting matter, crisp editorials and late news make its popularity. By availing themselves of our club rates, the WEEKLY GAZETTE costs only half a dollar a year. It is given with the Bulletin, Chronicle, Examiner or Record-Union, which cost alone two dollars and fifty cents, for three dollars; with Harper's publications and the Argonaut for four dollars and fifty cents a year, and with other papers in proportion. Send for sample copies.
